

The Newest Member of the KU SBDC Staff

Please join the rest of the SBDC staff as we welcome Peter Hornberger, Educational Coordinator, who will be joining Don Martin, Director of Learning Resources, in facilitating our workshops throughout our ten-county area.

Hornberger is a graduate of the Kutztown University's MBA program and a former SBDC graduate assistant. He is also a Kauffman certified training facilitator.

Prior to joining the KU SBDC, Hornberger worked in an accounting business owned by his family for over 50 years. He also worked as the accountant for a Berks county school district for the past two years.

He is currently the treasurer and board member of the Wyomissing Area Education Foundation which provides scholarships and educational activities for the community.
